I am from 0.6 to 0.7 and I have made the db upgrade.

journals

This bug can be product after I have select the file to upload and clicked to the add button.

The webserver have the write right on all the folder of redmine.

And I am running with ruby fcgid.

I think you didn't migrate your database. See [[RedmineUpgrade]] and reopen this ticket if needed.

I have re-launch the db migration : rake db:migrate RAILS_ENV="production"

And I still have the bug .

bq. I have re-launch the db migration : rake db:migrate RAILS_ENV="production"

Did you restart your webserver and fcgi processes after migrating?

Seem to work now after a full stop of apache and start ,I was thinking I've restarted the apache server.

I don't understand.

So its resolv :)

Thank jplang
