説明
French locale is the only one with "zero" written alphabetically in some entries. For instance, @label_x_open_issues_abbr_on_total_zero@ is @zéro ouvert sur {{total}}@, while other locales have a simpler @0 open / {{total}}@ with the appropriate equivalent for "open". It can make project welcome (overview) page difficult to read, and anyway, it makes french locale different from every other. French guys: let me know what you think. See proposal patch attached.
