説明 By allowing custom fields to link to an enumeration, it is possible to have a drop down list of selectable values for the custom field. journals I was wondering actually if the Enumerations could be turned into custom fields of a new specific type, any thoughts? Main thing is to get some sort of valid values for custom fields (e.g. choose from a drop-down, like enumerations). Whatever works. +1 related_issues relates,New,19343,Custom enumerations as format for custom fields
